

Profile of Norman Lewis

Norman Lewis, Sr. Vice - President, Software Strategy, has extensive experience in Automotive Industry and Information Technology. This seasoned veteran worked in Ford for more than 25 years in various positions. After leaving Ford, He is actively participating in number of Technology Development and Community support projects. At Vision, He guides the company in various software strategy initiatives for Automotive Industry and related applications.

Experience since leaving Ford

July 2001 to the present, at the request of the CIO of Ford Motor company, directing a project at Focus: Hope.

May 1996 to august 1998, Employed at Compuware. Worked on a project to create an IT Out Sourcing Company for the Health care industry. This became a joint venture with the Oakwood HealthCare System, Set up under the name CareTech in 1998.

Consulted with the Greater Detroit Area Health Council (GDAHC) and was a member of the Media Lab project steering committee

June 1996 to march 1997, responding to a request from the chairman of Ford Power Products Division, identified their IT needs to support business expansion, and developed an approach to support these requirements and replace their legacy systems.

October 1995 to April 1996, as a consultant to IBM supporting the design of Information to systems to integrate information flow from the shop floor to the executive level, as a component of the IBM Worldwide Production Solutions.

In 1995 developed a Systems Strategy for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

Work History at Ford Motor Company

June 1990 to September 1994: Director, Corporate Systems Planning and Development

January 1982 to June 1990: Director, North American Information Systems

June 1973 to January 1982: Director, Systems Office, European Automotive Operations

June 1966: Joined Ford of Britain, Systems analyst, IT functions

Education

Birkbeck College, University of London, England: Computer Science

Rutherford College of Advanced Technology, Newcastle-on-Tyne, England: Operations Research.

Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel: Solid State Physics

University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa: Physics and chemistry

About Vision Tech Solutions

Vision Tech Solutions is a Software Product and Outsourced Software Product Development firm, dedicated to provide custom made software services to customer's need of any size within global reach. Vision provides end-to-end solution with faster implementation at an economical cost.

The capabilities, experiences and relationships over years give Vision, the expertise as well as the knowledge capital to help us achieve a competitive advantage in the outsourced product development / software development marketplace.

To find out more on Products and Services offered by Vision Tech Solutions, please visit our web site at www.visiontss.com or contact us directly at

30800 Telegraph Road, Suite1901

Bingham Farms, MI 48025-4543

Phone: (248)-290-2910

Email : info@visiontss.com

Vision Tech Solutions is an MMBDC certified Michigan Minority Supplier.